Making Gender Mainstreaming Work

Abstract description (EN):

The Office of Equal Opportunities implemented the project Making Gender Mainstreaming Work (PROGRESS programme) in the period from 25 November 2007 until 25 November 2008. The main objectives of the project were as follows:-

- raise awareness of women and men holding decision-making positions in all relevant areas of state administration on the importance of including the gender perspective in policies; - with the aid of various tools, strengthen the commitment of public servants to include the gender perspective in their work;- improve the implementation of gender mainstreaming under the dissemination of project results to all relevant persons making and adopting policies at the national level. Following the objectives of the project, the following activities were carried out: - With survey questionnaires, an analysis of identification of the gender perspective in the state administration was made; - Workshops were organised for coordinators for equal opportunities for women and men in the ministries and their deputies, head of departments within the ministries, public servants participating in preparing legislation, and those who are involved in the phases of preparation, implementation and evaluation of different EU programmes and policies and programmes at a national level;- A manual including methods of gender mainstreaming and a training module was prepared.
