Untold Problems: A review of the essential issues in the mental health of men and boys

Abstract description (EN):

The Men's Health Forum and the mental health charity Mind have come together to produce a review of the most important mental health issues affecting men and boys. This is the first such review in the UK. the review has been funded by the National Mental Health Development Unit. The project will be followed by the development of guidance on effective mental health practice with men and boys, in January 2011.

This will be relevant to policy makers and all practitioners who work with men and boys in the area of mental health. The project aims to raise awareness of the mental health problems that affect men and boys and to promote a gender sensitive approach to mental health practice.
